The Alumni Corner

2011 Reunion

Zeta Rho was born on May 23, 1953. Eight classes were initiated over the years before the chapter became inactive. December 8, 2005, was very special, with the recharter and a New Alpha Class.

On April 16, 2010, the 100th member of Zeta Rho crossed into the joys of our Order. We will celebrate five years of new life on Saturday, April 30, 2011, with the first ever Alumni Barbeque!

The Steering Committee, co-chairs are Darius Gaines (New A) and Mike Harris (New H). The Committee challenges donation of $25 from each alumni Sinfonian by February 15, 2010. The check should be made to Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia—Zeta Rho Chapter, and should be sent to Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia—Zeta Rho Chapter c/o Fisk University Music ; 1000 17th Avenue, North; Nashville, TN 37208.

Coming back home is always exceptionally amazing because I have the honor of calling the men of Zeta Rho my brothers. This homecoming the bruhs definitely made flying back worth wild. I enjoyed the fellowship with the bruhs each and every day. Having the opportunity to get to know brothers who have come after me through fellowship we are not able to function from collegiate support alone. It takes a unified effort from all members of the chapter. Financial support from alumni brothers helps with the operation of the Fraternity and sets an example for today's collegiate members to follow once they become alumni. When you give, know that your financial sacrifice will never be in vain, and that your gift is always appreciated no matter how large or small. So alumni, please continue to give. If you have not given, there is never a bad time to start.

Renew your brotherhood and meet alumni from the past 57 years! Get to know the collegiate brothers. Sing and make music with each other.

A Word From the Treasurer

As a future alumnus of the Zeta Rho Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha I see it as necessary and beneficial to give back to the Fraternity as a whole, but especially my chapter. Giving back shows support for the organization. As a chapter and a brotherhood, participating in many more fellowships with my brothers. You definitely reminded me of why I love my Phi, My Mu, and My Alpha! Keep up the good work!

"Harmony is ever to be the noble aim of our beloved society—harmony not only in music, but in the life within the fraternity, and in the broader and fuller life beyond its portals: it is the harmony whose music is felt in the hearty handclasp, heard in the cheerful greeting, seen in living notes in the generous act." — Ossian Everett Mills

Annually, Fisk University beckons alumni near and far to come together on her hallowed grounds. Homecoming, furnishes a platform for current students and alumni to gather in pursuit of truth and beauty. I was most excited about the prospect of spending time with my chapter brothers, and for good reason. Throughout homecoming, I was always in the company of at least one of my chapter brothers. We cheered our dear Bulldogs to victory at the Homecoming games. We strolled together in fraternity regalia, at the Greek step show. We raised our voices in chorus, much to the pleasure of those who heard. Arguably, the most fulfilling experience came at week's end when I dined with a group of brothers at a local restaurant.

It was a most fitting end to a great Homecoming. My smile lingered long after I arrived back in Chicago. In my sincere opinion, my Homecoming experience lends itself to the noble aim of our beloved fraternity.

Thus, I eagerly anticipate the next Homecoming.

Darius "Cut Time" Gaines,
Chicago, Illinois

"All of our noble dreams, inspirations and visions succeed or fail depending on the quality and character of our men and the fraternal spirit that resides in each of us. There is no other key.

"So let us each make a conscious and deliberate effort to elevate others with our thoughts, our words, our actions – and with music. Each time we uplift our fellow-man we raise fallen sparks and win the soul of the world to harmony." – John Alan Mongiovi National President

Joining the Fight against AIDS by De'Andre Jones—New Theta

A sense of community is an important asset to any group of individuals who aim at bettering themselves and others. HIV/AIDS has become a pandemic that has struck fear into the hearts and homes of many families around the world.

On October 2, 2010, Zeta Rho joined hands with the Nashville community in an attempt to spread awareness about the disease by participating in the Annual AIDS walk in downtown Nashville. Prior to the walk there were tents set up to provide awareness and prevention dialogues about the disease, gift bags filled with information, pins and snacks were given to the participants. Walkers had the real sense that they were part of something bigger than themselves. The Zeta Rho Chapter will continue to unite with the Fisk community as well as Nashville community to continue fight against HIV/AIDS.

As we prepare to transition into this new semester, we all enter into the term with positive minds and working spirits. Continuing to evaluate ourselves based on objects set forth in the president's vision as presented to the brothers at the Fall 2010 retreat, we are more motivated than ever before. Zeta Rho is continuing to hold strong to the proclamation set forth by SGA president Jenise Burks as the "most productive male organization on campus." We completed the semester with two successful Mills Music Missions, three effective fundraisers, and a host of other service programs. I anticipate that this semester will be more eventful than ever before. As we prepare to make history by initiating the Iota class into our chapter, we are making positive strides towards not only bringing in a class of scholarly gentlemen, but the brothers of the Zeta Rho chapter are also preparing for the unveiling of our very own campus plot. take pride in setting an example in our classrooms, organizations, and any other areas we represent. So Let It Be for SINFONIA!
