Zeta Rho Presents Concert of Spiritual

On Tuesday, February 23, ZP collaborated with Kelsey Mahaffy of Fifty Forward Community Centers, to sing a concert for Black History Month, featuring the roots of African-American Music, the Negro Spiritual. The program was part of their Black History Initiative to educate members of the community center on different avenues of African-American culture, this year, focusing on music.

Recognition from the Faculty: Collegiate Honor Award and Collegiate Scholastic Award

Each year Sinfonia contacts Music Deans and Department Chairs to select the graduating Sinfonian whose character exemplifies the ideals of the Fraternity. The Collegiate Honor Award was presented to Willis Ware (New B) The Scholastic Award was presented to Preston Wilson (New Δ), the graduating Sinfonian with the highest G.P.A. The ZP Advisors presented a special Advisor's Award for Unusual Service to the Chapter to Mike Harris (New H). The Fisk University Music Department selected Jordan Holland (New E) and Kaylina Madison as Outstanding Music Major.

Sinfonians Rock out for Haiti!

ZP's response to the cry for help was to hold a competition to raise funds to rebuild schools. The charity was Educational Assistance for the Children of Haiti (E.A.C.H.), working to rebuild schools that were destroyed by the earthquake.

After the 7.0 earthquake hit Léogâne, Haiti, people throughout the United States began working to get needed supplies for rescue workers.

Honda Battle of the Bands

On January 31, 2010, PJ Moton attended the annual Battle of the Bands in Atlanta. This event showcased nine HBCU bands, chosen for exemplifying musicianship and leadership throughout the year. This event is a magnet for Sinfonians from all over the US, with over 40 chapters represented this year.

Sinfonians on the CBS Evening News

"It is very humbling to know that you are keeping a legacy alive—and an appreciation for this music," Jordan Holland told Randall Pinkston on the CBS Evening News, aired January 30.

The Fisk Jubilee Singers were featured on the January 30 edition of the CBS Evening News. The news crew had been to rehearsal, captured footage of "Ain't Got Time to Die," and "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen" and conducted interviews with Singers, including Jordan Holland (New E). The focus of the report was the Singers' second Grammy Nomination. Selected members of the ensemble performed on the recording of the song "I Believe" with Jonny Lang.
